Where the Money Went.

the Commissioners have had the ma ter under consideration some time and will bring a cond-monation process as soon as the county has any money to spare for the purpose .-News.

The above refers to the road closed by Mr. Cook. If so much money had not been spent in plaining up the level road between Carson and Empire, and repairing it when it was not necessary, there would be plenty of money in the treausry to open the road in question.
